Training Class "Budgeting for Engineers"
Frost Tower
401 Congress Ave
Austin, TX 78701
11:00 AM - 01:00 PM CST
Imagine a property management world where pipes didn't burst, tenants had no complaints, and we looked forward to budget season? I may not be able to make the impossible happen, but what I can guarantee is that "Building a Better Budget" can be made possible with less frustration and more fruition.

In this seminar, I will share techniques and key tools guaranteed to make budgets your acquaintance, not your enemy. You will learn what budgets really do, how to satisfy your analytical accountant (because it's possible), budget building blocks that actually work, realistic time management, and understanding that experience will ultimately build your budget. Mastering your budget may take time and experience, but even the master was once a student!
